

Do you know the grounds of unlawful discrimination?

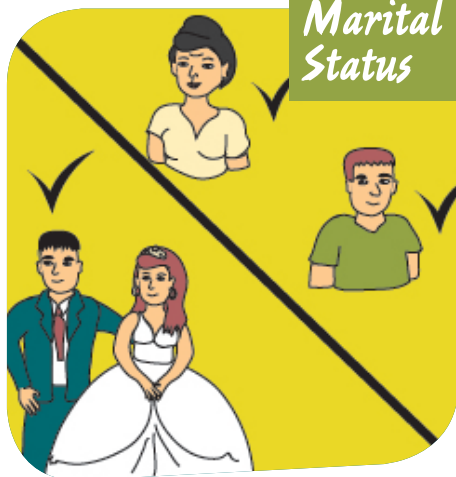

Traveller culture includes many identities. We all have the right to be treated with respect.

Race

Judging anyone by their skin colour is to miss out who they really are

Marital Status

Married or single you have a right to equal respect

Sexual Orientation

Some Travellers are gay, lesbian or straight

Religion

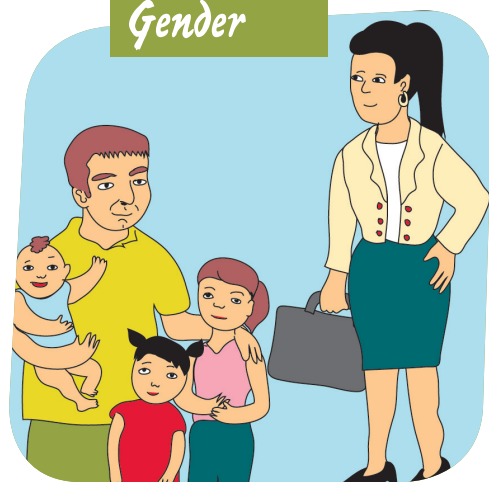

You are free to follow the religion you choose, or to choose not to have one

Age

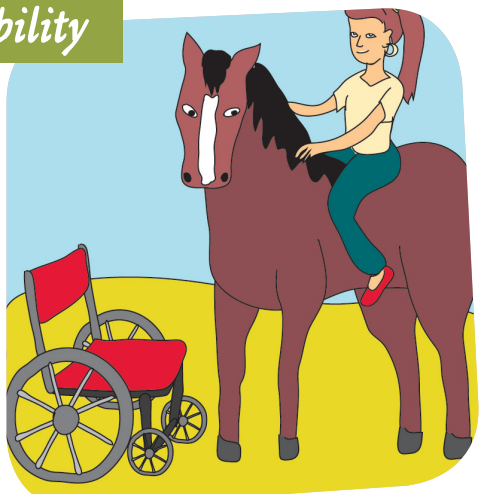

Regardless of your age you have a right to be treated respectfully and fairly

Gender

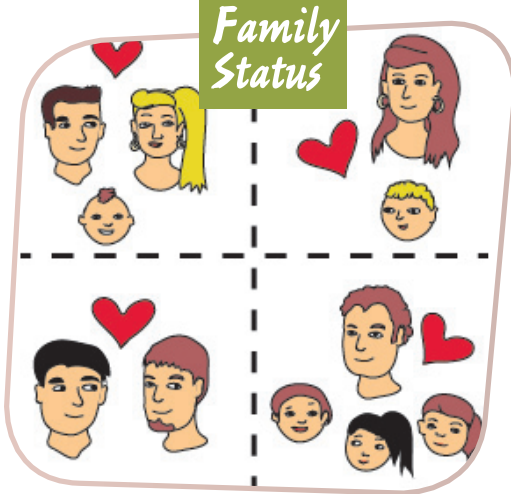

Women and men have equal power, rights and responsibilities

Disability

Disability affects us all but it is only a part of who we are

Family Status

Traveller families come in many shapes and sizes

Member of the Traveller community

Travellers and settled people have equal rights under the law
